Introducing
Kimberly Morgan

Chief Operations Officer

With extensive social impact and C-suite technology experience, Kimberly joins Beam as COO to advance its mission of bringing dignity to the social safety net.

Kimberly will help ensure the end-to-end platform streamlining equitable public benefits serves all communities. Since 2020, Beam has administered over $200 million to 300,000 families throughout the United States.

An accountant by trade, Kimberly left finance to work with Rep. John Lewis in pursuit of creating people-centered impact. Most notably, she planned Selma 50 to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of Bloody Sunday with President Obama.

Prior to Beam, Kimberly also co-founded Ahead Financials and served as the first Black Director of Budget & Operations at the National Academy of Sciences.

Kimberly holds a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from North Carolina A&T State University and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Baltimore.
